CITY POLICE HINT GANG LINK IN ARRESTS

300 CONTROLLERS START MEETINGS

Keyed to the theme of "Keep Pace with Tomorrow," the fifth annual Regional Conference of the Society of Savings and Loan Controllers opened today at the El Mirador Hotel.

Nearly 300 chief accounting, officers representing savings and loan associations in the 11 western states have registered for the three-day conference which is under the chairmanship of Lucille K. Johnson, vice president of Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association.

ACCORDING TO Mrs. Johnson, the conference will be devoted to intensive discussions of subjects of interest to savings and loan controllers, who must continually adhere to a policy of "keeping pace with tomorrow."

"While the savings association controller must have his finger on the pulse of all departments within the institution, it is imperative that he is constantly seeking new and improved methods of accounting, control, and other subjects vital to operation, since he is a vital cog in the overall operation of these associations," she added.

FORMAL OPENING of the Regional Conference was held during a general luncheon at noon today, with a welcome by Mayor Frank Bogert. Chairman of the keynote event was J. Edward Harp of Redlands, president of the local Tri-County Chapter of the controllers' society. Harp introduced the principal speaker, Dick Lane, motion picture and TV personality.

The afternoon session featured two panel discussions, the first on loan procedures, moderated by B. E. Perry of Santa Ana. Participants included Esther M. Dearth, San Rafael; Thomas E. Maitre, Los Angeles; Robert E. Downie, Portland; and Gordon Bluth, Salt Lake City.

Tomorrow's sessions will include discussions of operation, accounting, and automation. The conference will conclude Saturday morning with a breakfast featuring an address by Robert E. Hatch of Glendale, governor of District 11 of the society.

The decision to award the prize, which carries a cash award of $42,610 was made this afternoon by the professional staff of Sweden's Caroline Medico-Chirurgical Institute.

CC Chamber Ouster of Moon Bared

Hadden Defends Director Action In Drastic Action

CATHEDRAL CITY — C. E. Hadden, president of the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce, said today that the action of the board of directors to ouster Warner Moon from the Chamber was taken because Moon "was not willing to conform to the decisions made by a majority vote of the board."

Moon himself brought the unprecedented action to light this week, when he notified the local press that he had been dismissed from Chamber membership because "I protested the action of the board in contributing $500 to Bert Lamb as campaign expense in the recent Palm Springs School Board election."

"AT THE TIME the vote was taken," said Moon, "13 members of the Board were present, and three voted against the donation."

Moon asserted that "such a contribution or any contribution for political purposes" was a violation of the by-laws of the organization.

Within two days after the action was taken to give the money to Lamb, Paul Clark returned the $500 to the treasury of the Chamber, Hadden said.

THE ACTION oustering Moon, who has served on the local Chamber for 11 of the 13 years he has lived in the community, was first taken, according to Hadden, at the Sept. 15 meeting and confirmed at the Oct. 6 meeting. Other charges brought against the board of directors by Moon, which are being called "false" by Hadden, were listed by the Chamber president as follows:

—MOON WAS SENT the same legal notice of the meeting, at which the action was taken, as other directors, however he did not attend.

—He made no formal request to see the minutes of the proceedings.

—Regarding his statement that the contribution was in violation of the by-laws, the great majority of the directors made a study of them and feel the action was not in any way in violation of the by-laws.

—MOON WAS NOT secretary at the time of the action; he had submitted his resignation last spring and it was duly accepted.

—The money was replaced in the treasury by Clark to forestall the interjection of any irrelevant issues in the school board election. Clark's action followed a pledge by the board members, individually and collectively, to conduct a money raising campaign to replace the funds in the Chamber treasury.

"THE CHAMBER noted Moon's very fine service to the organization and to the community over a span of several years," said Hadden, "but found that he was not willing to conform to the decisions made by a majority vote of the board of directors."

DUCK WHO BECAME DOG KILLED WHILE 'BARKING' AT CARS

CHICAGO (UPI) — A psychologist said today an opportunity for a rare study in animal behavior died with Hermann, a duck that took up the ways of a dog and was killed while chasing and "barking" at a car.

Hermann was a phenomenon worthy of study, Dr. Theodore Schaefer of the University of Chicago said, because he was well along in a duck's life before he decided he wanted to be a dog or began to believe he was one.

Because of Hermann's premature death under the wheels of an automobile last month, Schaefer said, scientists will never know whether he might have been persuaded to be just plain fowl again.

CHESSMAN'S PLEA FOR LIFE GOES BEFORE GOVERNOR

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI)—The man in "Cell 2455, Death Row" went to battle today in one of his last chances to avoid an 11-year date with death eight days hence.

Several countries in South America and Europe have rallied to his cause, and he has gained support from opponents of capital punishment in this country.

The morbid history of Caryl Chessman — best-selling author, red light bandit, kidnaper, rapist, psychopath and genius — was laid before Gov. Edmund G. Brown. He now must decide whether or not to grant last-minute clemency.

Council Puzzled On Revision of Subdivision Code

Palm Springs City Council, often confused but never in doubt, last night found a completely new source of amazement for themselves in a proposed subdivision ordinance which suggests the installation of underground utilities plus sidewalks and street lights.

Local residents who sat through the lengthy session last night became greatly confused when — over the span of four hours — the council:

—HELD A PUBLIC hearing on the proposed subdivision ordinance amendment for underground utilities, sidewalks and street trees; —Put off until next meeting any decision;

—Subsequently approved an application for Jack Meiselman's Alejo Palms Estates, subject to partial underground utilities, sidewalks and street trees;

—Later directed the City Attorney to draw a new ordinance making it mandatory for developers to put in underground utilities, sidewalks and street trees.

A RECORD NUMBER of people attended the council session last night with most of them protesting the proposed new ordinance. Many had left prior to the final determination of the executive body after the council had indicated they would take no action at the meeting.

The City Administration started off the proceedings last night by reading two lengthy reports on the "upgrading of our subdivision standards," but as soon as Mayor Frank Bogert opened the meeting to discussion by the public, the public countered the Administration's report by flaying the increased cost of local housing; the driving of local residents out of town to buy homes; the strangling of small developers because of increased investment for subdivisions; and the belief that the planting of some trees would be bad for the health of some people who have allergies against them.

At Meeting Tonight

Plans for College To Be Discussed

PALM DESERT — Progress in the preparation of preliminary plans for the design of Coachella Valley's new junior college is scheduled to be the main topic of discussion at tonight's meeting of the board of trustees here.

The college buildings are being designed by a team of architects headed by John Porter Clark, coordinating architect. Others include John Carl Warrack, Williams & Williams, Wexler & Harrison and Frey & Chambers.

WARNECKE is master plan and design architect. A representative of the team is expected to be at the meeting which is set for 7:30 p.m. at the college district office on Highway 111.

Gogerty Says Not to Ask For Recount

Adopts Waiting Attitude on Site Location Dispute

Hotelman Hank Gogerty today quashed rumors that he would call for a recount of Tuesday's narrow bond election victory for the Coachella Valley Junior College District.

"I've never even thought out loud of doing anything like that," Gogerty told The Desert Sun this morning, adding that he has no intention of asking that bond ballots be recounted.

GOGERTY, A dedicated opponent to the Palm Desert college site, said he was well aware of the fact that the $3,500,000 college bond issue passed with a scant, 22-vote margin.

But Gogerty, owner of Desert Air Hotel and its private airport, said he was waiting until the college Board of Trustees canvasses the vote next Tuesday before proceeding with any further action.

COLLEGE TRUSTEES are scheduled to meet Tuesday night for a canvass of the ballots. Unofficial but complete returns gave the college district 3,486 "Yes" votes and 1,732 "No" ballots — for a 22-vote margin beyond the two-thirds majority required for passage.

"The board has indicated that they are going to re-evaluate the site," Gogerty remarked. "It will be interesting to see what develops."

IN HIS REFERENCE to future action, Gogerty said his plans do not involve the bond ballots. His attention is primarily focused on his Superior Court complaint which calls for an injunction to halt acquisition of the college site.

The college Board of Trustees last week announced its plans to thoroughly re-evaluate the site, located about one-half mile south of the Highway 111-Highway 74 junction in Palm Desert, near Gogerty's airport.

College President Roy McCall said the board is vitally interested in securing any evidence that would prove the site is in a "dangerous location," with regard to its proximity to Desert Airport runways.

20 Natives Dead In Congo Battles

LEOPOLDVILLE, Belgian Congo (UPI) — Rival tribesmen clashed today in another round of fights "to the death" near the town of Lulubourg where terrified European residents have taken refuge.

It was the third day of fierce clashes between the Lulua and Baluba tribes. Reports reaching the Congolese capital 600 miles away said at least 20 natives were dead.

STRIKE PROBES ASK MORE TALKS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower's fact-finding board urged both sides in the steel dispute today to resume negotiations immediately or submit their differences to voluntary arbitration if they fail to settle the 93-day-old steel strike.

Voluntary arbitration means that both sides in a labor dispute agree to accept the decisions of an impartial umpire.

PROF. GEORGE W. Taylor, chairman of the three-man fact-finding board, made the suggestions on behalf of the panel at the close of formal hearings into the dispute.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the 12 biggest steel companies, rejected the arbitration idea, but said he was ready to go back into contract talks with the union.

DAVID J. McDONALD, president of the steelworkers, told newsmen:

"I am in the mood for collective bargaining to try to reach an agreement."

Meanwhile, in San Francisco, negotiators for management and three unions have reached tentative agreement for ending the final phase of the seven-week-old Pacific Coast shipyard strike.

Errol Flynn Dies Of Heart Attack

VANCOUVER, B.C. (UPI) — A coroner viewed the body of actor Errol Flynn today to decide whether the hero of swashbuckling roles on and off the screen died of a heart attack or other causes.

Flynn, 50, died Wednesday night in a doctor's apartment about two hours after complaining of pains in his back.

"I THINK I might lie down," the movie star told Dr. Grant Gould and a group of friends, including Flynn's "protégé," Beverly Aadland, 17. "But I shall return." They were his last words.

Police, FBI Quiz Victim Of Knifing

Couple Questioned Following Arrest In Village Hotel

Village police and FBI agents today questioned a pretty, 21-year-old Hollywood brunette who was slashed across the chest in what police believe may have been a gangland attempt on her life.

But the woman, identified as Barbara Ann Begies, refused to tell officers how she received a series of apparently near-fatal knife wounds. The wounds were closed by 24 stitches supposedly administered by a Beverly Hills physician.

DETECTIVE SGT. John Herrera said the pert brunette, who gave her occupation as sales manager for the Golden Circulation Company in Los Angeles, was arrested last night on a resorting charge, in company with 30-year-old Roy William Cummings, of Hollywood.

The two were registered as man and wife at a local hotel, Herrera said.

Herrera said that Cummings, who listed his occupation as vice president of the Clix Camera Corporation, was picked up by police for questioning on an interstate civil case involving the sale in Oklahoma of $2,500 worth of liquor purchased in Los Angeles with a national credit card.

A MAN ARRESTED with a car load of liquor in Globe, Ariz., yesterday told police that he, Cummings and a third man had bought the liquor for sale in Oklahoma City, where it is worth about double its original purchase price, Herrera said.

A security officer for the credit card company asked Palm Springs police to pick up Cummings, whom the Globe suspect said, was staying at a Village hotel. So far, this is a civil case, but FBI agents are investigating its interstate implications.

Local police, however, were more interested in Cummings' story of his attractive companion.

CUMMINGS TOLD Herrera the girl came to his Hollywood home last Wednesday, on the verge of collapse from multiple knife wounds in the chest.

Cummings claimed the girl was slashed in Beverly Hills that night and said she was treated by a private physician. The incident was not reported to Los Angeles or Beverly Hills police, Herrera said.

Herrera believes the girl may have been the victim of an underworld attempt to either silence her or take her life, but she has remained close-mouthed throughout her questioning this morning.

GOP 'STILL ALIVE'--KUCHEL

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.) said today the current series of top policy statements proved that the Republican party was "alive and responsive to the problems of the people."

Kuchel, assistant Senate Republican leader, described the statements as "vivid, specific proof of the capacity and readiness of the GOP to face up to challenges both international and domestic in import."

The lawmaker referred to a series of statements being issued by the Republican committee on program and Progress recommending action in various fields over the next 17 years.

SAKS WILL OPEN HERE TOMORROW

The newest addition to Palm Springs' rapidly-expanding merchandising landscape—Saks Fifth Avenue — opens informally here at noon tomorrow with ranking executives of the nationwide chain on hand to officiate at the unveiling of their twentieth branch.

Located at the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Ramon Road, the architecture of the distinctive building was planned under the close supervision of Adam L. Gimbel, president of the Saks Fifth Avenue chain.

IN OPENING A Saks Fifth Avenue for Palm Springs, Gimbel said his objective was to provide the same services and comprehensive collections of apparel and accessories available in the Saks Fifth Avenue stores located in important cities across the country, housed in a building especially designed to capture the feeling and mood of the desert.

The new store is a striking combination of dark volcanic rock and shaded tile, enhanced by landscaping of rare and unusual desert flora.

The 13,000 square foot building was designed by Welton Becket & Associates, with a large parking area adjacent to the store.

INTERIOR DECOR was specially created in muted Indian and desert colors, with the piece de resistance a gnarled weatherbeaten manzanita tree adorning the Dress Salon.

This hundred-year-old tree, brought from the top of Mt. San Jacinto which towers above the desert area, has been sandblasted to a gleaming white with pink stripes of grain, and is dramatically silhouetted against a simple driftwood gray wall.

At its base are choice specimens of colorful rock formations typical of the local area, bathed in simulated desert light.

ENTERING FROM the motor court, a center boutique unit provides a sparkling background for jewelry, handbags and scarves, with lingerie and intimate apparel directly to the right.

Decorated in blended tones of desert gold, the Salon houses dresses, suits and coats for all occasions, highlighted against the focal point of the magnificent manzanita tree and desert decor.

The cosmetic section is artfully arranged in front of the large window facing Palm Canyon near the front entrance.

Adjacent to the Active Sportswear unit, with comprehensive collections of sportswear for poolside and resort activities.

APPAREL FOR MEN is carried in an area devoted to masculine comfort, featuring an open fireplace, exposed wood box and large leather chairs. Outer apparel, accessories, sportswear and shoes can be selected in living room comfort and leisure.

Headed by Joseph Del Mastro who manages Saks Fifth Avenue's summer resort store at Southampton, the majority of the carefully selected sales staff are residents of Palm Springs. The Palm Springs store is under the direct supervision of Jack H. Matthes, general manager of the Beverly Hills unit.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes wrong.

Voice of the Voters

Appreciation is again due to the voters of the desert area for bestowing their formal approval upon bond issues providing the wherewithal with which to build more new schools and enlarge existing plants.

The comfortable excess over the required two-thirds majority which was accorded to the $4,160,000 issue for the enlargement of the Palm Springs Unified School District bespeaks the usual generous support and public understanding of the need for additional classrooms to keep pace with our fast growing local population.

The $3,500,000 bond issue for construction of the new College of the Desert appears also to have been passed, but by a margin so slim that it will be in doubt pending the outcome of the official canvass of the election.

This is in sharp contrast to the 9 to 1 vote favoring formation of the district last year, which can still be considered as a true expression of the desire of the people for a Junior College in the desert.

The drop from 9 to 1 to a bare 2 to 1 public support in such a short time can only be attributed to disagreement with action of the Board of Trustees of the College of the Desert, primarily in the matter of site selection.

The voters have now made it exceedingly plain to the Board that the Site finally chosen must be close to the populated center and eligible for State and Federal approval as required in regular financing subventions and grants.

In effect, and by the barest of margins, the people have given the trustees of the Junior College a mandate to "straighten out" the site situation satisfactorily as members promised to do prior to election "if" the bonds were approved.

The "voice of the voters" has now been heard. It expects the College Board to cooperate closely and fully with all local, County, State and Federal bodies properly concerned with the location and construction of the new educational institution.

It remains for the College Trustees to do so in a manner so openly proper, sound and considerate of the interests of everyone that none can have reasonable cause for complaint, now, or in the years to come.

'Remember—It Could Be a Dive Bomber'

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

Special days, special weeks
Special months
Through the year,
But today starts a week,
A week
That I really can cheer.

Starting today and continuing through October 21, it is National Newspaper Week.

THAT'S WHEN the newspapers, from the smallest four-page weekly stuck away in the woods, to the biggest dailies in the biggest cities, are given recognition for the great work they are doing for their country.

That is, the papers of the free countries where they are unfettered, unhampered, unrestrained by dictators and can keep the people informed. That's why they have free countries.

I LIKE NEWSPAPERS because, while it's work — long hours sometimes — it's also fun.

And when work is fun, it isn't really work.
I ought to know. Seven years ago, come next April, it will have been 37 years toiling (if you aren't too careful of your words) in the typographical vineyards.

Starting as a lowly printer's devil and galley hop to managing editor and back again to editor emeritus.

IN APRIL, 1953, they threw a party for me, gave me a watch and all of that sort of thing, on my 50th anniversary in the business.

But I fooled them, I kept on working. Didn't take the hint until about three years ago when I quit the active side and became an Emeritus.

That's a lot of fun, too.
You can hang around, give out with the advice, take it easy, mess up a lot of nice, clean white paper with a typewriter — with no responsibilities.

That's bad?
ANYWAY, between now and next Wednesday — Newspaper Week — consider the paper the boy brings you each day. You take it as a matter of course. Never think of it unless the kid one day forgets to leave it or throws it up on the roof.

But what would you do without it?
You could get the news, sure, via radio and TV, but if you happened to miss that, you'd be out of luck.
Couldn't turn back to re-check.

IN A NEWSPAPER you can organize your reading as you want it — straight news, society, sports, features and advertisements.

And the latter are very important, in saving you money and in the convenience of buying.

Via other media, however, you've got to take it the way they present it.

SO ESPECIALLY consider your Desert Sun this week. It has, is, and always will be, for what's best for you and the desert area.

From the front door to the back door everybody working here is for you and Palm Springs.

STAN DELAPLANE:

In the Deep-Freeze

The electricity went off the other night up our canyon. This is an electrical age — the gas and electric company sends me little folders from time to time proving what a great-hearted corporation they are; but just miss paying your bill by the 15th of the month.

My electricity was not disconnected by the company for non-payment. It was disconnected by an Act of God, as it says in the fine print contracts.

MOST COMPANIES have contracts disconnecting themselves from Acts of God. This always seemed to me a matter of ye of little faith. But they do it anyway.

They disconnect from acts of the Almighty; from the public enemy; from civil and international war. "The company assumes no responsibility for etc."

THAT IS AN idea for my corporation. I have a small but workable corporation. And I think I will assume all responsibility for heavenly acts. And hope to heaven that heaven will accept some responsibility for mine. Even though I am not giving very good odds.

Well, the electricity went off due to rainfall. Which surely falls from the heavens.
The electrical company hustled out and fixed it.

MEANTIME WE had to get along with candles. Also there is the matter of the deep-freeze.

We live in a deep-frozen world. Steaks and chops, pies and bread come from our nourishing freezer box. When the juice goes off, we are thrown back into the Stone Age.

Do you know what you have to do when the freezer breaks down. You have to go down and shop at the supermarket! That is facing reality. Pioneer conditions. Rough and ready.

WE USED to send our daughter down to face it on her bicycle. But now she drives down in the car. She takes the scenic route — past the drive-in, over the hill where the girls live, through the valley where the boys live, down by the soda fountain where the Gang hangs out.

ATTORNEY MEL Belli housewired his new pad above the Sunset Strip with the strangest all-star cast of the year, including such members of the Cislunar Set as Errol Flynn and his young girl friend, professional imposter Fred Demara, and Mickey Cohen, whose date was striptease Candy Barr's three-year-old daughter.

Charter a canoe, a B-52, or hop aboard a kangaroo — what ever you do, if you're in this neck of the woods, don't miss "The Desilu Revue!" The new show, produced by Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz and staged in a converted projection room on their own lot, gives a group of 16 top-talented tots their Big Break, and they take full advantage of it.

One of Carole's cleverest bits: she pretends to put in a phone call to Vic Mature and gushes, "I'm your biggest fan. I see you in 'Samson and Delilah.' I see you in 'Demetrius and the Gladiators.' I see you in 'The Robe' — hey, what are you anyway, a religious fanatic?"

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Police cited a suspected bookie establishment Tuesday and decided it was too heavily barricaded to pull off a raid before evidence could be destroyed.

So they telephoned the suspect, told him his place was about to be raided, and grabbed him as he ran out the door with a satchel full of betting notions.

PUEBLO, Colo. (UPI)—Ex-convict Howard Skip Houston, 32, told officers he picked a Pueblo, Colo., address at random to use on phony checks spread through Colorado and Montana.

He didn't learn until he was arrested Friday that Police Chief Roy Harper lives in the house he selected.

LONDON (UPI) — Eighty-year-old orchestra conductor Thomas Beecham Tuesday said he was injured while climbing 350 steps up the Eiffel Tower in Paris. He sprained his wrist gripping the railing.

What Happened to Item 11?

WASHINGTON, D.C. — All good things must end, but the Senate (McClellan) Select Committee on Improper Activities in Labor and Management came to a most unworthy close. The finale was featured by the throttling of a U.S. Senator by a Committee employee.

This Othello-like strangling scene was committed upon Senator Carl Curtis (R., Nebr.) by Chief Counsel Kennedy and his brother Senator Jack Kennedy (D., Mass.). It took place before an aghast press table and a few visitors and is now history. But what has not been revealed, I think, is some of the background for the scuffle.

WHEN THE Committee was organized three years ago, an agenda of 11 items was adopted, the last one being "An investigation of the Political Influence of Organized Labor." The following dialogue comes from unpublished transcripts of executive meetings of the eight-member Committee:

Sen. Goldwater (June 30, '56): "You intend to go through all eleven points that were agreed upon?"

Chairman McClellan: "Oh, yes."

SEN. GOLDWATER: "I don't think it is proper to look into politics before an election (1958), but I do think we could afterwards."

Ch. McClellan: "I would not limit a political expenditure investigation just to violations of Federal Law. I would go into the practices of it, to see whether a Federal Law should be enlarged. . . you take the over-all picture and you get the practice of things that are being done, and weigh them as to whether there should be further legislation in that field."

TIME PASSED. The '58 election took place. The new Congress convened, as did the Committee:

Ch. McClellan (Jan. 25, '59): "With respect to this political category . . . If we are going into it, we ought to begin to move."

But by May '59, Chief Counsel Kennedy was still investigating Item 10 (juke boxes) and nothing had been done to open a probe on Item 11. At a closed hearing about this time, the Republican members pressed the question. The following dialogue is reconstructed from off-record statements:

CHIEF COUNSEL Kennedy: "Well, I have done some private work in this field of political spending by the Unions. I will say that if we do go into it, about half the members of Congress will end up in jail for violation of the Federal Corrupt Practices Act."

Senator Mundt (R., S.D.): "Well, I think we have a duty to do it anyhow. I think the American people would demand it."

Mundt's statement put the Committee on the spot, but there was some stalling by Democratic members. One Senator (D) said that if Unions were investigated for improper influence upon elections, he would demand that the big oil and gas firms also be probed.

THE REPUBLICANS were expecting this, and they agreed—but the Unions must come under investigation simultaneously. Another Senator (D) demanded a probe of the Chambers of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers. Another said that the Committee would be exceeding its authority by investigating Unions, and that the Senate must be asked for additional authority.

But all the stalling came to nothing and McClellan appointed two members, Church (D., Idaho) and Goldwater (R., Ari.) as a subcommittee to get Item 11 under way. On Aug. 18, the Committee met and heard four academic witnesses on the general subject of political spending by both Labor and Management. The witnesses were: Profs. Alexander Heard (U. of N.C.), Sylvester Petro (N.Y.U.), Andrew Hacker (Cornell) and Director Herbert Alexander (Citizens Research Foundation).

THUS, THE letter of the Committee's duty was fulfilled — an "investigation" had been made under Item 11. But had the spirit of the Committee's obligation been satisfied? Senator Curtis felt that it had not. He opened the subject of United Auto Workers' "flower funds," which are large sums of money extracted from the Union members and spent by UAW President Walter Reuther and other union chiefs for political purposes.

It was at this point, with anti-Reuther witnesses getting down to facts and figures, that the Brothers Kennedy broke up the show and the Chairman brought down the gavel.

Sinatra Can Get TV Guests

NEW YORK — Frank Sinatra's trying to switch his December TV show from Hollywood to New York so he can keep his date at the Copacabana, but even he has problems getting guest stars these days. An overture has been made to French singing sensation Yves Montand, but his price is $20,000, which Sinatra's managers think is "trop cher," as we say over at Berlitz. By an interesting coincidence, Monsieur Montand (of whom Marilyn Monroe said, "He sings with his body"), is known abroad as "the Sinatra of France."

Saks Looks Desert Than 5th More Avenue

By HILLY CRAWFORD

Like every woman in the desert area, I've been eyeing Saks Fifth Avenue Palm Springs store during the months it's been under construction, and wondering what it's like inside. Now I know . . . and if you can't wait to see it tomorrow you can read about it here.

The smart Palm Canyon Drive doors and those leading into the store from the Motor Court, were locked to keep out the curious, and manager Joe Del Mastro smuggled me in through the service entrance in the rear. Clerks were still arranging stock and department heads were on the telephone talking to the Beverly Hills store about stock still to come. It was like a show that's almost at the dress rehearsal stage, and tempo was building up as opening day loomed just ahead.

For a store that carries a Fifth Avenue label, it has quickly caught the desert feeling . . . and gone Palm Springs. The uniquely designed building that has gone up on Palm Springs' most strategic corner caught the desert feeling with its lava rock walls, set into cement one rock at a time, and the feeling carries on into the interior, with some of the lava rock walls going inside, where grasspaped walls and rough-textured rugs carry on the feeling, contrasting mightily with the smooth tile floors.

In the new mood, the store is open, with the whole store a window display that you walk into and through. There is no display window as such. You walk through the front doors in the all glass front, and inside, in the casual fashion, stand two fantasy horses sculptured of raffia. The clothes horse idea is carried out further with hanging horse's heads carved from wood, used as hangers for showing blouses and other garments. The smart new display counters are lined with crackled marble.

Just inside the front door is the Boutique shop and mid-store with a mountain view through the floor-to-ceiling glass is the smart show salon. Here you'll find the Cinderella slippers, rhinestone-studded, at $175 a pair. I glimpsed bright new ideas in handbags (those cut-velvet ones in the faded red of old wall hangings are exciting) and glittering arrays of the newest in costume jewelry.

At the far end of the store is a fireplace, with seashell impressions in the cement face. The fireplace adds the final touch to the men's department which has been set up with deep chairs, and tables in a masculine den effect.

Carrying out the Old West theme, the two men's dressing rooms are hung with wooden plaques that are replicas of handbills of the "Wanted" variety, and time tables for the river boats and railroads.

The casual informal setting emphasizes the smartness of the men's wear, like the casual and leisure jackets, some in raw silk crash, some cut tuxedo style in paisley print, that are really conversation pieces.

Heart of the new store is the dress salon that has not been named yet, but might well be called the Manzanita Room, because a 100-year-old manzanita from the top of old San Jac dominates the room. It's been sandblasted to a gleaming white and is silhouetted against a gray wall, and hung with choicest garments in rich golden tones.

Back in the storerooms are rack after rack of dresses and coats. There are designer dresses, spectator sports dresses, handknit, French copies, evening gowns, starring the Sophie collection, which is shown twice a year. The noted designer is the wife of the Saks president, Adam L. Gimbel. The first Sophie show in Palm Springs will probably be arranged in January according to Ve Weaver, head of the women's department.

I saw elegant brocade costumes, and the designer collection, which has evening gowns in the $1,200 bracket. There was a wonderful costume of soft gray wool, belted in the waist, with a boxy jacket sequined in silver. There was a Sophie dress in warped print with short jacket lined in black mink. There were glamorous evening coats, a great coat of heavy white satin, with rhinestone buttons.

Sizes range through petite and half sizes and junior sizes, and there is a wide price spread, with racks of bright imported cottons from Italy, and clothes in the medium price range, too.

Ultra new are the fitting rooms that are large and bright and airy, with swinging angle mirrors that replace the old three way mirrors. An interesting collection of Bill Harris desert scenes hang in these rooms. Harris is considered one of the greatest collage artists in the country.

Saks Fifth Avenue Palm Springs store is new and modern, of the desert and for the desert, and a far cry from the original one in Manhattan. Proudly it takes its place along with the other smart shops that are making Palm Canyon Drive the Fifth Avenue of the West Coast.

A GNARLED MANZANITA TREE, a century old, dominates the elegant dress salon at the new Saks Fifth Avenue in Palm Springs, with fabulous gowns by Sophie displayed in the sharp contrast to be found in this desert resort town . . . the natural beauty of desert and mountains and the jeweled beauty of the shops, the evening gowns, and the women who winter here. (Desert Sun Photo).

Sorority Has Program on Public Speaking

Public speaking themed the cultural program presented when the Exemplar Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met Monday evening at the home of Marjorie Griffith. Speakers were introduced by Marge Hayes.

The informative speech was given by president Ileen Burkholder whose subject was on the analysis of cystic-fibrosis, appropriately chosen since the sorority contributes each year to research on this disease. Salesmanship was the subject of Bernice Bottorff, who stressed the importance of selling one's self first in order to be convincing. With the assignment to choose action, Dorothy Read spoke most effectively on the subject of the current school bond issues and what they mean to the future of Palm Springs children. Marjorie Griffith entertained the group by recounting a personal experience, with a light and humorous touch. The final speaker was Marilyn Mason, who related on what goes on behind the scenes of teachers' groups. Her principal message was to let the group know that none is more concerned with the standards of the teaching profession than the teachers themselves and that a move is underway to screen individuals for their moral and philosophic standards as well as scholastic qualifications since it is recognized that their influence on children's lives and general approach to life is greatly influenced by the teacher in the classroom.

Surprises Wife on Her Birthday

Mrs. Foster Simonsen, who thought she was celebrating her birthday by going out to dinner with her husband and some out-of-town friends, found a real surprise awaiting her when they arrived at the Oasis.

Her husband, who had made all the arrangements, had 18 guests waiting to say "Happy Birthday," and there was an orchid for Mrs. Simonsen.

The party gathered in the lounge, where a punch bowl occupied a position of honor on a table, and hot hors d'oeuvres were served. The dining table was decorated with roses, pink ribbons and candles, and the waitresses brought in the rose-decorated, candle-lit cake, singing "Happy Birthday" as they came.

Seated around the big square table were Messrs. and Mmes. Herbert Burns, Paul Leathers, Russ Mitchell, Al Hoover, Charles McDonald, Collis Steere, Howard Mathews, Jack Garrison of Oregon, Mrs. Jeannette Lipsky and William Chin.

Marjorie Pohl in Hospital

Marjorie Pohl, publicist, UPI correspondent and L.A. Examiner columnist, is in Desert Hospital with pneumonia.

Only recently returned from her ranch in Waterman Canyon, where she spent most of the summer, Marj has been busy with two new accounts, El Mirador and Oasis, but has picked up a virus that someone came out here to lose. A long time resident of Palm Springs, she has a house here on Vaquero Road.

When laundering blankets, soak them to remove the dirt instead of agitating them. Agitation often causes blanket shrinkage.

ANNOUNCING THE NEW PLYMOUTH!

SOLID FOR '60! AT YOUR DEALER'S TOMORROW!

BUILT A NEW SOLID WAY TO GIVE YOU SOLID SATISFACTION

CHRYSLER ENGINEERING INTRODUCES A NEW KIND OF PLYMOUTH THAT MARKS A MAJOR BREAKTHROUGH IN CAR DESIGN. BODY AND FRAME UNIT ARE WELDED TOGETHER AS ONE, IN A NEW WAY. MANY PARTS THAT WORK LOOSE, RATTLE AND NEED FIXING IN ORDINARY CARS ARE ELIMINATED. THIS LOW-PRICE '60 PLYMOUTH IS STRONGER AND ROOMIER. IT USES LESS GAS THAN BEFORE. IT RIDES MORE COMFORTABLY, WE BELIEVE, THAN ANY OTHER CAR IN ITS CLASS.

PLYMOUTH'S NEW DURA-QUIET UNIBODY is a rigidly-formed structure, locked by approximately 5400 precise welds. It has no conventional body bolts, braces, struts or stays to give trouble. Road noises and road shocks are dampened. Even the sound of the wind is hushed.

We doubt if any car at any price has ever ridden or handled as well as this new low-price automobile. Practical Stabilizer Design, incorporating rear stabilizer fins, adds stability on the road, cuts wind resistance, gives better gas mileage.

The new Solid Plymouth is a young, exciting car with ten full years of Chrysler Corporation development behind it. It will suit you particularly if you want a feeling of quality and a sense of craftsmanship. It is built carefully and precisely. We believe there is no other car in the low-price field that resembles it.

AN ALL-NEW INCLINED OVER-HEAD VALVE "6" IS AMONG FIVE PLYMOUTH ENGINE OPTIONS FOR 1960. The first inclined engine ever in an American passenger car is the new Plymouth 30-D Economy Six, most powerful "6" in America. Very economical, it is inclined to make servicing simpler, to lower the car's center of gravity and to make handling and riding easier. Also for 1960: the limited-production SonoRamic Commando V-8*.

SOLID PLYMOUTH 1960 OFFERS FEATURES NO OTHER CAR IN ITS CLASS CAN OFFER. Custom-Positioned Front Seat. Safe-T-Matic doorlocking system*. RCA "45" Record Player*. And many more.

*Optional at extra cost

Law in Action

Evidence Degree Is Important

The prosecution in criminal cases must show guilt "beyond a reasonable doubt," but in most civil cases, one side wins merely by proving his case by a "preponderance of evidence."

When civil cases verge upon the criminal, like cases involving civil fraud or undue influence, the court may ask for "a clear and convincing evidence."

THE STAKES — life, liberty, and one's good name — are higher in criminal cases than in civil cases. Long ago the courts came to demand greater proof to convict a person of a crime.

What is "reasonable doubt?" Jurors must look at all the evidence and say to a "moral certainty" that the charge is true. Or the judge might merely tell the jurors to acquit a prisoner if they have reasonable doubt about his guilt.

THE ACCUSED may try to justify himself; he might say he acted in self-defense (this was no defense in the old days); he may claim he was insane or acting under provocation. The burden is on the accused to prove these "affirmative defenses," which are to justify his acts.

Unless a fact is put in evidence neither side may use it to persuade a court or a jury. One prosecutor stated that he wouldn't try the case unless he knew the accused was guilty; another told the jurors they should be afraid to meet their fellow-men if they didn't convict the accused. Both statements were "misconduct," and a court had to try these cases again to be fair.

EVIDENCE MAY be too inflammatory: Revolting pictures and sensational exhibits cannot be brought into court solely to shock or to arouse the jurors' anger or indignation. Remarks to a jury comparing their case to another notorious one, may well result in misconduct and a new trial.

Since the stakes are so high in life and liberty in criminal cases, our rules call for the most careful presentation of evidence and the highest degree of proof.

Justice Slow, Judge Complains

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Henry Nevares, accused of illegally wearing a Navy uniform, was released from jail after a federal judge learned he had been held 36 days without benefit of arraignment. Nevares was released on his own recognizance and instructed to return for trial Oct. 26. The jurist noted that he was greatly displeased by the slowness in arraignment and said the defendant was being denied his right to a speedy trial.

GIRL, 15, ADMITS KILLING PARENTS

OLATHE, Kan. (UPI) — An auburn-haired schoolgirl yesterday sobbed out a story of slaying her mother and father, both members of prominent Kansas City families, with roach poisons she told them was a "thrill powder."

Diane Roberts, 15, attractive only child of William F. Roberts, 43, and Mrs. Evalyn Roberts, 41, was held in the Johnson County jail here pending a juvenile court hearing.

"I DID IT because mom and dad were always criticizing everything I do," Sheriff Lynn Thomas quoted the girl as saying. "Daddy beat me Sunday night and threatened to kill me. I thought I would kill him first."

SHE SAID SHE mixed roach poison in grape juice and persuaded her parents to drink the concoction Tuesday night.

They soon became violently ill and Diane summoned an aunt, who called a physician. Finding the couple unconscious, he rushed them to a Kansas City hospital where both died.

Street Sign Gas Lights Proposed

Vice Mayor Ted McKinney has proposed that the city investigate the possibility of putting new "gas lights" on street signs. Complaints about the present dark street signs brought about the proposal.

According to McKinney, the lights can be obtained in quantity for about $18 each, and cost very little to operate.

QUESTION:

How should my windows be set for the best operation of my evaporative cooler?

ANSWER:

For the best distribution of air, a window in every room should be slightly cracked open. However if you desire more circulation into a particular room, you may close all windows and allow air to exit through that area. Since evaporative coolers utilize 100 per cent outside air an outlet must be provided to the outside.

After Nine Years

Vivian to Make Break from Lucy

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — For nine years Lucille Ball and Vivian Vance were a set — you rarely saw one without the other on TV, but with "I Love Lucy" taking a dive the girls are going their separate ways.

With Lucy it's easy. She can sit back and clip coupons from the profitable Desilu Corp. which she and Desi Arnaz own.

RED-HAired Vivian is well off too. Residuals from reruns of more than 200 "Lucy" shows bring her a tidy income. Still, TV's Ethel Mert wants to continue her career on her own.

To lose her identity as the wacky, scatter-brained Ethel, Vivian has just completed a dramatic role in horse opera, "The Deputy."

"The role is a far cry from that biddy Ethel," Vivian laughed. "The woman I portray is a strong individualist who rides horses and drives buggies. It's given me a new lease on life."

the end I thought I was getting tired of acting, but I was just weary of the same role. From now on I hope never to be seen wearing a Marcel and house dress."

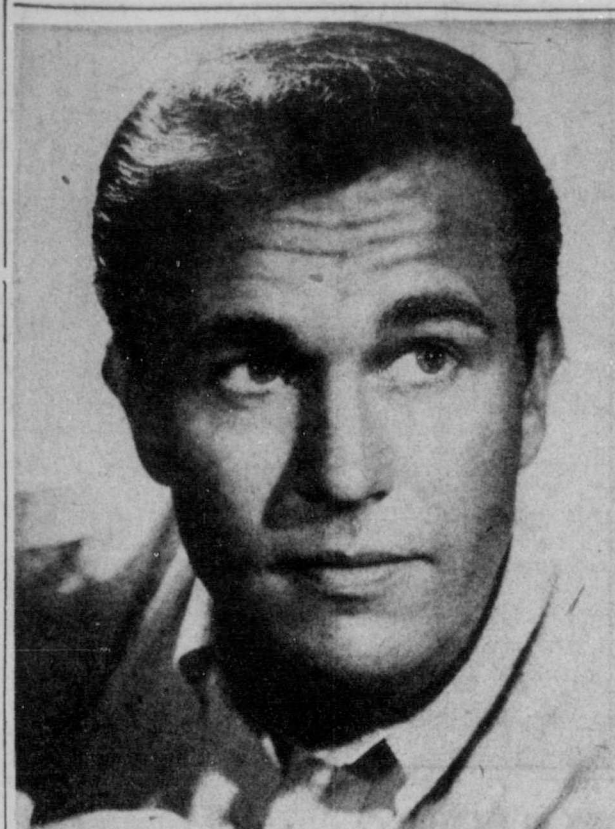

Vivian wasn't being disloyal to the show. She happily admits the program has made her financially independent for life.

"You'd think after all those years people would call me Ethel, but I seldom recognized. Off screen I look entirely different," she smiled. "However, I'll be delighted when audiences realize I'm not really married to Bill Frawley, who played Fred Mert on the show."

A close friend of Lucille off-screen, Vivian and her madcap buddy are planning an hour-long TV musical with Vivian playing second banana.

"I LEARNED my comedy early in life on the stage working with such greats as Ed Wynn, Victor Moore, Bob Hope, Jimmy Durante and Bill Gaxton," Vivian said. "I think it's the most difficult part of acting."

So Vivian Vance is back in circulation, free of Ethel Mert forever — or almost anyhow.

DON DURANT, star of the new CBS Television Network "Johnny Ringo" series, has come a long way since his junior high school days when he had a daily half hour long radio record show over a Riverside radio station. A top vocalist for many years, he was discovered by Dick Powell while appearing in a movie with Jane Russell and signed to the play the quiet gunman turned sheriff, "Johnny Ringo." The show is seen Thursdays, 8:30-9 p.m. PST.

Television Notes

NEW YORK (UPI) — One of the forthcoming stories on NBC's "The Loretta Young Show" will have the popular Walter Slezak playing the role of a physics teacher.

In the cast supporting Jimmy Durante Dec. 6 when he does the hour-long special, "Give My Regards to Broadway," on NBC will be singer Jane Powell and little Eddie Hodges. One segment of the show will be devoted to the works of George M. Cohan.

Susan Lloyd, the Canadian beauty featured with Mike Connors in the new CBS "Tightrope" series, has had key roles in 84 TV shows since she arrived in Hollywood two years ago from Toronto.

Just because the baseball season is off doesn't mean the game is off the air — if you happen to live in the right places. Peter de Met Productions is syndicating to individual stations a package of one-hour versions of 26 major league games of the 1959 season selected on the basis of their worth as exciting baseball and entertainment. Each major league city is represented at least once in the series.

Julia Meade, well-known to TV audiences both as actress and as a daughter, Caroline, Sept. 30. She is the wife of commercial artist Oliver Wormshum Rudd.

Three of the dramatized "actuals" that have been seen on the CBS "Armstrong Circle Theater" will be made available to the reading public in a Citadel Press paperback volume entitled "The Best of Armstrong Circle Theater." There is an unusual department in that the book does not contain the TV scripts but short story versions of them written by Trudy and Irving Settel. The plays so adapted are "Buried 2,000 Years: The Dead Sea Scrolls" by Irvin Tunick, "Thirty Days to Reconsider" by Roger Hirsom and "Junkies' Alley" by Mel Goldberg.

The next four guest stars on Ernie Ford's NBC program, beginning Oct. 22 are, in order, Cliff Arquette, Gordon Scott, Darrin McGavin and Minnie Pearl.

You can look for singer Tommy Sands to turn up as a guest star on Garry Moore's CBS program Nov. 10 and on Perry Como's NBC show on Dec. 9.

Voltaire Perkins acts as presiding judge in KTTV's public service presentation which vividly recreates actual courtroom divorce cases. Court procedures and case background information is provided by Bill Welsh, who highlights the necessary commentary for "Divorce Court."

Plaintiffs, defendants and witnesses are portrayed by actors and prominent attorneys appear anonymously on the program.

SPORTS in the SUN

Thursday, Oct. 15, 1959 The Desert Sun 11

RANCH GOLF CLUB fairways and greens are located in the desert and in the club background can be seen the San Jacinto, Little San Bernardino, and the Chocolate Mountains. The golf course, tied in closely with the famed Ranch Club, was built by Noel Clark, who is perfecting more than a square mile recreation facilities.

THE WINTER GOLF CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

Ranch Golf Club, Newest in Area, Among Best

(This is the eighth in a series on Palm Springs Area golf courses. Written, compiled and edited by The Desert Sun sports staff, the articles are dedicated to a better understanding of the golf facilities in the Winter Golf Capital of the World.—Editor)

By FRED C. WEIGEL

As plush airliners or comfortable private planes start their descent into the Palm Springs Airport, they must inevitably cross over a bright green spot at the end of the northwest runway—a spot which is known as the Ranch Golf Club.

The Ranch Golf Club is operated in conjunction to the exclusive and private facilities of the Ranch Club, and although at present is only nine holes, it will soon be completed to an 18-hole championship link.

ANNEXATION of Section 29 by the City of Palm Springs yesterday, beats the Ranch Golf Club out of the title as the only 18-hole golf club in the city limits of Palm Springs, but its presence in Palm Springs helps to round out an even dozen desert area courses and it too, takes its place in the Winter Golf Capital of the World.

Only half completed, golfers today can play on the Ranch Golf links, and twice around the course makes them an 18-hole course, 74 par, for a total of 6,894 yards.

THE LONGEST single fairway on the course is number nine, stretching 520 yards from tee to cup for a par 5; and the shortest is number 5 hole, 166 yards, for a par 3.

When the next 9 holes have been completed the course will be par 72.

Built on a total of 160 acres, the first nine holes cover just half of the course, 60 acres, and in the center of the fairways is a huge lake which contains 2,000,000 gallons of water. The course is landscaped with over 12,000 tamarisk trees, 500 palms, 600 eucalyptus and cypress.

AT THE PRESENT TIME the Ranch Golf Club represents a total investment of approximately $725,000 investment (not including the second nine). It has a driving range, two putting greens, a professional shop, dining area, lunch counter, and cart shed—from which 30 electric carts are operated.

The golf facility is tied in closely with the operation of the famed Ranch Club and Capistrano Beach Club, and guests at the main club are given golf privileges.

HOWEVER, A separate membership list is being compiled by the golf club, with an initiation fee and dues. There is no other cost to the golf membership for play on the links.

The Ranch Club has a total of 350 accommodations for visiting golfers, and at the club visitors can rent clubs, have men's and women's locker rooms, and all the incidental things that make living here a luxury.

ACCOMMODATIONS include single rooms, apartments with kitchenettes, and three and four bedroom houses, all with daily maid service, 24-hour switchboard service, and a total of 20 swimming pools.

The Ranch Club and Golf Course is contained on more than a square mile of ground, with horse stables, golf course, swimming pools, living quarters, home sites, a super market, cocktail lounges, tennis courts, and as a special service, the club has installed a special two-way radio system which can have a Continental breakfast served to you at your quarters on a moment's notice.

BEHIND THE DEVELOPMENT is the Ranch Club and Golf Course is Noel Clark, who not only is able to take care of his flourishing business, but is able to take an important part in civic affairs. General manager of his Ranch Club properties is Art Robinson, 50, whose ability is only exceeded by his congenial manner and helpful attitude.

The staff on the golf course is comprised of John Bennett, 31, course manager and the youngest in the local area. He came here in May, 1958, helped build the course, and is now managing it. Joe Calwell is professional at the Ranch Golf Club, and Ray Gorder is Greens superintendent.

TWO OTHER IMPORTANT men in the operation of the golf course are Harold Swanson, chef at the dining room (only breakfast and lunches are served at the golf clubhouse) in the golf club, and Al Gardello, starter and cart maintenance man.

Only recently completed, the Ranch Golf Club has set only membership tournaments for the coming year, but next Monday will hold the first of what they hope will be a big annual Ranch Golf Club Pro-Am.

LEADING PROFESSIONALS from the desert area will play with three amateurs on their team, in a one-day tournament starting at 8 a. m.

The tournament will be followed by a buffet dinner. Noel Clark has a single thought in building this master recreation area with its golf facilities—"to allow people of moderate means the most luxurious golf and fun facilities at a low cost."

CLUBHOUSE of the Ranch Golf Club is located on the northeast corner of Section 1, and cannot be seen until the visitor is in the immediate area. The building contains a professional shop, cart storage, dining area, lunch counter, and men and women's locker rooms.

Southland Women Golfers Compete Here Next Week

2 Courses Listed for Tourney

Second annual Desert Event tournament of the Southern California Women's Golf Association will be staged next Monday and Tuesday at Indian Wells and Thunderbird Country Clubs, it was announced today.

Approximately 200 of the leading women golfers in the Southland will compete in the 36-hole event. Play will be held on both Indian Wells and Thunderbird courses simultaneously Monday and Tuesday, 18 holes each day on each course.

Low handicap golfers will tee off at 8 a. m. at Indian Wells on Monday and higher handicappers at Thunderbird at the same time.

Tuesday the fields will be reversed with low handicappers playing at Thunderbird starting at 8 a. m. and the high handicap group at Indian Wells, for the final 18.

Play will be in foursomes. Ruth McCulloch is the defending champion having won the first Desert Event of the association last year.

Tamarisk Club Auxiliary Starts Weekly Events

Tamarisk Country Club's Women's Golf Auxiliary has renewed activities with play planned every Tuesday with the return of many members.

In the first tournament of the season Mrs. Willard Parker won low gross honors and there were three tied for low net: Mrs. George Forman, Mrs. Lillian Gorman and Mrs. George Karlich.

In an Eclectic tourney Tuesday, Marjorie Wells was first with 34 and Mrs. Leo Baker second with 35½.

Warn Senators Move Will Start Anti-Trust Quiz

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The chairman of the House Judiciary Committee warned big league baseball today that it would invite "strong" anti-trust legislation if the Washington Senators moved to Minneapolis.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) served notice that any move by the Washington club "will give me more ammunition and impetus" to push a baseball anti-trust bill in the next session of Congress.

RESTING COMFORTABLY OXFORD (UPI)—Athletic Director John Bricketts, 53, of Miami University was reported resting comfortably at McCullough-Hyde Memorial Hospital today after being taken ill with heart trouble.

WILLIE SHOEMAKER In Hall of Fame

Willie, the Shoe Elected Member Of Hall of Fame

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Willie Shoemaker, headed for an unprecedented fifth national riding championship this year with more than 390 winners, today was elected to the jockey's Hall of Fame along with two riders of the past—Mack Garner and Carroll Shilling.

Shoemaker, at 28, is the youngest jockey ever enrolled at the shrine, which is maintained at Pimlico by the Maryland Jockey Club. He received 436 votes in the nation-wide poll of sports writers and sportscasters. The total was exceeded in past elections only by the 571 cast for Earle Sande and Eddie Arcaro's 443.

The 98-pound saddle star became eligible for election this year after completing 10 years of riding. In the decade since he rode his first winner—Shafter V. at Golden Gate Fields on April 20, 1949—he has ridden more than 3,500 winners, a total only exceeded by Johnny Longden, Arcaro and Ted Atkinson.

Longden has been riding 33 years, Arcaro 28 and Atkinson retired after 21. Garner, king of the Western racing circuit for 23 years prior to his death of a heart attack in 1936, received 312 votes. Shilling, who had a brief but spectacular career from 1904 through 1912, got 235.

Venturi, Hebert Ellis Favored in Costa Mesa Golf

COSTA MESA (UPI)—Touring professional golfers teed off today in quest of a share in $15,000 prize money in the 72-hole Orange County Open on the new Mesa Verde Country Club course.

Among pre-tourney favorites were Wes Ellis Jr., Alderess, N. J., current Texas Open titleholder; Ken Venturi, the young pro from the San Francisco area, and Jay Hebert, the Louisiana-born stylist who plays out of Sanford, Fla.

Leahy Returns To Grid Scene

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Frank Leahy, returning to football after three years retirement, said today he accepted a post as general manager of the Los Angeles entry in the new professional American Football League as a huge challenge.

It will mark the first time the fabulously successful college coach over has held a front office job.

Coronado Offers Rich New Prize

Local golfers received word this week of a new amateur tournament to be staged at Coronado October 30 to November 1.

Play will be for the Coronado Cup, one of the richest prizes in amateur tournaments. It is valued at $1,000 and will be the permanent property of the winner as a new one will be put up each year.

Jayvees Meet Hemet Juniors Here Tonight

Palm Springs Junior Varsity football team, victorious in its two practice games to date, plays its first home game tonight when it entertains Hemet High JV's on the local lot at 6 p. m.

The local Jayvees, coached by Bob Gilmore and Dick Hough, defeated Perris there, 40-0 and San Jacinto at San Jacinto, 19-6.

HEMET HAS an even break so far, defeating Coachella in a practice game and losing a squeaker to Banning.

They are reputed to have a powerful team. Gilmore, head coach of the Papoose outfit, and Hough, line coach, believe they have a good chance to take the honors in the Junior Varsity division of the new Desert Valley League in its first year.

The Jayvees play on Thursday nights starting at 6 p. m., meeting the same foes each week that the varsity does only at opposite fields.

THEY'LL OPEN their league season against Indio High here October 22, go to Yucaipa October 29, to Banning November 5, meet Coachella here November 12 and close the season at Twentynine Palms November 19.

Some of the top players in the JV squad are Bill Bradley, Chuck Baker, Henry Heuck and Ben Wheeler, backs, and Gil Flores, Carlos Reyes and Simon in the line.

Name Gunsell as NFL Manager To Succeed Bell

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Austin H. Gunesell, former FBI agent who joined the National Football League seven years ago as a special investigator, began his job today as acting commissioner with a pledge to support the policies of the late Bert Bell.

Gunesell, 50, league treasurer since 1956, was named by the club owners Wednesday to direct the league until a permanent commissioner is selected next January. One league source hinted that the job he does in the next four months could determine if he would be offered the permanent post.

Eric Monti Enters Sahara Tournament

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Golfer Eric Monti, Hesperia Open titleholder, will be one of some 40 professionals teeing off in the second annual Hotel Sahara Pro-Am Golf Tournament starting Oct. 27, it was announced today.

I stand every morn—with my face

I'll go on my way and play.

MARKETS OFFER GOOD MEAT BUYS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Shoppers this weekend will find pork, beef and poultry in excellent supply with prices favorable to the family food budget.

Vegetable bins offer a good variety, too. Among these are potatoes and sweet potatoes, onions, cabbage, spinach, cauliflower, tomatoes and carrots.

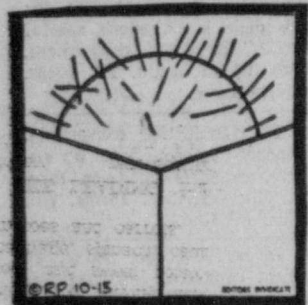

THE LEADING fruits offered today, and representing excellent values, are apples, pears, oranges, grapefruit, lemons, grapes and avocados.

In the fish line, plentiful include shrimp, fish sticks, and canned tuna.

These are the weekend's best values from a national standpoint. Now, here's a closer look at plentiful foods in the desert area:

PAUL PRICE'S DROODLE

"BALD-HEADED PORCUPINE VICTIM READING GET-WELL CARD"

If you study this Droodle carefully (you probably won't) you'll notice that the man is not a Porcupine Victim and he is not reading a Get-Well card. He's reading a Newspaper because today starts NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK and he's doing his part to help celebrate the happy occasion. Newspapers began around 1566 in the City of Venice, Italy, but they were a far cry from our present day Newspapers. They didn't have Comic Strips, Recipes, Advice to the Lovelorn Columns, Want Ads, Horoscope Predictions, Race Results, Photos of Hollywood Stars, Cross Word Puzzles or even Droodles. In fact the only thing they contained was News. Just goes to prove how far Newspapers have advanced in the past 400 years.

priced pork, eggs, fryer chickens and apples in most markets this week. Fresh pork loins are down 2 to 3 cents a pound in most markets, and other pork cuts are slightly weaker in price. Beef is in ample supply, and some cuts are down 2 to 3 cents a pound in California markets. Calf, veal and lamb are mostly unchanged in price.

Supplies of eggs, particularly the large size, are plentiful. Large eggs are mostly 2 to 3 cents a dozen cheaper this week, and they are down as much as 4 to 6 cents a dozen in the Los Angeles area.

AMPLE SUPPLIES of ready-to-cook fryer chickens are 1 to 2 cents a pound lower than a week ago in most markets, and ready-to-cook tom turkeys are priced slightly lower in California markets. Butter is in ample supply and unchanged in price.

Fall varieties of apples are in plentiful supply and lower in price. Other fresh fruit and vegetable plentiful include grapes, pears, cauliflower, lettuce, tomatoes, cabbage and dry yellow onions. In good supply are avocados, grapefruit, lemons, Valencia oranges, potatoes, squash, spinach and sweet potatoes.

In fish, best buys include salmon, halibut, rockfish, flounder and sablefish.

Handling the transaction for both buyer and seller was Realtor Peter B. Sheptenko.

Robinson Son Arrested Tuesday

WEST LOS ANGELES, Calif. (UPI) — Actor Edward G. Robinson Jr., was held in jail on a plain drunk charge Tuesday following a run-in with police while he was looking for a girl friend.

Dear Abby

...By Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: We have had a "Peeping Tom" reported in our neighborhood twice in the past year. Nobody could catch him. Last night, to my amazement, I saw a neighbor of ours prowling around my back yard. Then he climbed up on another neighbor's porch and just sat there looking in her window while she undressed. My heart was beating sixty miles an hour. I called my husband. He said for us to keep quiet because this man is a well-to-do, respected businessman in town. He is married and has a nice family, too. I think he should be reported but my husband forbids me to get mixed up in it. Can you advise me?

SAW HIM MYSELF

DEAR SAW: No healthy-minded man behaves like your neighbor. Even though he has enjoyed a respectable reputation, there is every indication that he is sick. You will do him, his family, and your community a big favor if you promptly report him to the police.

DEAR ABBY: I have a mad crush on my Science teacher. I am 16 and he is around 32 or 33. He is married so there is no hope for me, but I can't stop feeling the way I do about him.

At the beginning of the semester he was very nice to me, but I did some very stupid things, and I mean stupid. Now he ignores me.

The most stupid thing I did was trying to take his picture in class. He sent me out of the room for that.

How can I get him to like me?

LITTLE BLUE GIRL

DEAR LITTLE: Your attentions to this teacher have obviously been a source of embarrassment to him. You are underdeveloped emotionally and the poor teacher is overexposed (to sweet young things). Get the situation in focus and accept the inevitable negative.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NOT POPULAR": Go to your public (or school) library and get Dickens' "GREAT EXPECTATIONS." Here is a story (very much like your own) of a young person who grows into a complete snob before he realizes what he has done to himself.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SALLY ANN: To get to heaven — turn right and keep going straight.

Humphrey Given Chance in West By Minnesotan

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Orville Freeman of Minnesota has painted a glowing picture of the presidential chances of Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) in the West.

Freeman, in a joint news conference with California Gov. Edmund G. Brown, said Tuesday that Humphrey would win the Oregon primary decisively.

He said that on his western tour he was "pleased" with Washington's attitude toward Humphrey. The response in Oregon was "excellent."

About California, Freeman said Humphrey had "many friends here," but "Senator Humphrey has no plans to enter the California primary at this time."
